Drive-Time: +/- 45 minutes. Flight cost is not included.

Check-in and enjoy the rest of your afternoon/evening at leisure (un-escorted).

Voted as the best place in the world to visit by the prestigious New York Times, Cape Town is one of the most popular destinations in South Africa. This vibrant multicultural city is a healthy mix of city and suburban living, vibrant day and night spots, outdoor recreational activities and relaxation. Two oceans with their beautiful white sand beaches embrace this nature-saturated city. Ride the revolving cable car to the sky on Table Mountain; shop at the V&A Waterfront, one of Africa's premier shopping destinations; stand on the edge of the world at Cape Point or delve into South Africa's past at Robben Island, the prison that once held one of the world's greatest heroes, Nelson Mandela. The Mother City, the "Green City", the "Tavern of the Seas"...whatever name you give it, this is a bucket list destination to be experienced and enjoyed.

City Tour Entrances

The city center drive showcases landmarks like the Castle of Good Hope (1666), City Hall, and the Grand Parade. Along Adderley Street, you'll see St. George's Cathedral and pass by the Company Gardens and the Malay Quarter [also known as the Bo-Kaap], which means "Above Cape" due to its position on Table Mountain's slopes. In the early 18th century, enslaved people from Java, Ceylon, and other regions were brought to Cape Town, and their descendants, the Cape Malays, settled in this area after slavery was abolished.

Table Mountain Aerial Cableway - Weather Permitting

Take a trip to the top of the world, high above the clouds, on the famous Table Mountain. This iconic landmark in Cape Town is one of the most photographed sights in the country and has been named one of the seven wonders of nature. It attracts millions of visitors from around the globe, and since the opening of the aerial cableway in 1929, more than 22 million people have made the journey to the summit. At the upper cable station, there is a restaurant and a curio shop, as well as several footpaths to explore and enjoy the incredible views.

Chapmans Peak Drive

Chapmans Peak Drive on the Atlantic Coast between Hout Bay and Noordhoek in the Cape Peninsula is one of the most spectacular marine drives in the world. Chapmans Peak Drive is affectionately known as Chappies and is a must for anyone who is passionate about the majestic scenery of Cape Town.

Initially constructed during the First World War, this 9km route with its 114 curves, skirts Chapmans Peak, the 593m high southerly extension of Constantia Berg, and follows the rocky coastline to unfold breath taking views in both directions.

The route starts at the picturesque fishing harbour of Hout Bay and the climb winds steeply up to Chapmans Point, revealing breath taking views of the sandy bays down below, until the road reaches lower levels again at Noordhoek.

Boulders Penguin Colony - Entrance fees

Located on the Cape Peninsula, in Simon's Town, a suburb of Cape Town in the Western Cape province of South Africa. It is also commonly known as Boulders Bay. It is a popular tourist spot because of a colony of African penguins which settled there in 1982.

Funicular (Return)

Apart from offering visitors an exciting and novel method of travel, taking the Flying Dutchman funicular saves visitors an uphill walk from the car park to see the old lighthouse and enjoy the panoramic views.

The Flying Dutchman Funicular, also known as the Cape Point Funicular, is a funicular railway located at Cape Point. It's the only commercial funicular of its type in Africa, and takes its name from the local legend of the Flying Dutchman ghost ship.

The line runs from a lower station at the Cape Point car park, up an incline through dense fynbos to the upper lighthouse. The funicular leaves from the lower station every three minutes, comfortably accommodates 40 passengers per car, and can transport 450 persons to the upper lighthouse per hour, making it the ideal way to whisk closer to the lighthouse even during peak times

Cape of Good Hope (Cape Point) - Entrance Fee

So named by Portugal's King John II this area has captured the imagination of European sailors such as Dias who first named it the Cape of Storms in 1488 and later in 1580 Sir Francis Drake who called it the "The Fairest Cape in all the World". Rich in cultural and natural heritage this is one of the top tourist destinations in South Africa. Due to the variety of wildlife that occurs here it is the only section that is fenced and visitors should look out for Eland, Red Hartebeest, Be sure to visit the Buffelsfontein Visitor Centre that showcases all the plants and animals to look out for in a particular season and is full of informative signage. At the point, visitors are treated to excellent viewing opportunities from both lighthouses that adorn the most south western point in Africa, one still fully functional. The lighthouse is accessible by foot or one can catch the Flying Dutchman funicular to the top. Bontebok and Zebra.

After tour, return back to your hotel and enjoy the rest of your afternoon at leisure (un-escorted).
